Purpose of the scheme:

The “Emerging Talent Bursary Scheme” supports individual athletes in the South Dublin County Council Administrative area, helping cover costs related to training, travel, accommodation, equipment and medical expenses where required, to pursue top-level competition. It is not available for team sport participants.

The total bursary sum countywide for 2025 is €65,000 .

How will my application be assessed?

Active South Dublin will assess online applications, with the successful applications being brought for noting at the relevant Area Committee Meetings. Successful applicants must acknowledge South Dublin County Council’s support with opportunities for brand ambassador roles through school/community visits and photos.

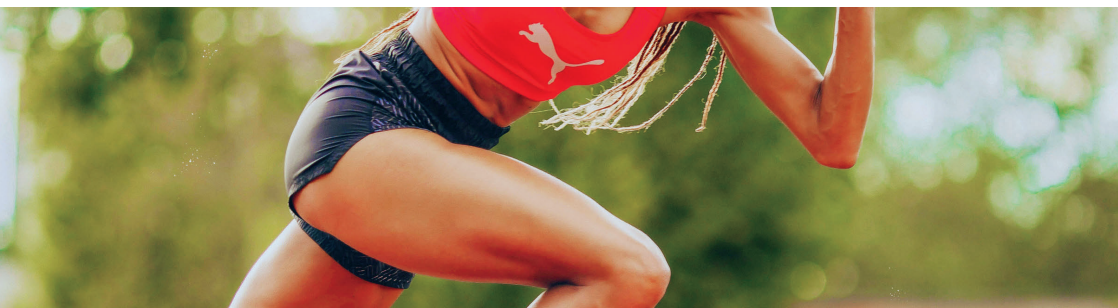

It is planned the bursary would be awarded in equal amounts in each of the seven Local Electoral areas (LEA) in South Dublin County. Should one LEA not use all the available funding, it may be distributed to another LEA.
