Development Plan 2004-2010

Schedule 1: Record of Monuments and places

Schedule 1

Record of Monuments and Places

These structures are protected under the National Monuments Acts and comprise of:

- Recorded sites and features of historical and archaeological importance included in the Record of Monuments and Places as established under Section 12 of the National Monuments (Amendment) Act, 1994.
- Major sites of archaeological importance in South Dublin in State Ownership or Guardianship.
- National Monuments which are the subject of preservation orders in South Dublin.
- Zones of Archaeological Interest in historic towns.

All sites are identified by the relevant reference numbers on the Development Plan Maps, which are derived from the Record of Monuments and Places for Dublin published by Duchas, The Heritage Service in 1998 and are listed below in numerical order.

Planning applications for development which might affect, or be unduly close to, or which might obstruct any scheme for improvement of the surroundings of or any means of access to a Recorded Monument, Site or a Zone of Archaeological Interest will be referred to the bodies prescribed in the Planning and Development Acts and Regulations.

South Dublin County Council

Development Plan 2004-2010

Schedule 2: Record of Protected Structures

Schedule 2

Record of Protected Structures

The structures listed below are those considered to be of special architectural, historic, archaeological, artistic, cultural, scientific, social or technical interest.

In general, the description of the structure used in the list refers to the original use of the structure(s). The current use is normally indicated where considered relevant to the listing. The descriptions of the items is derived from the National Inventory of Architectural Heritage for South Dublin County or from previous County Development Plans.

The listed items are shown on the Development Plan Maps by means of a rectangle with reference number. Due to the scale of the Maps the position of the symbol may not give the precise location of the listed item. (Development Plan Maps should be read in conjunction with this Schedule).

Where house names may have changed recently, the former name may be provided in the list. Likewise, in any case where a building or structure is mapped but not listed, it shall be deemed to be listed. Those Protected Structures, which are also Recorded Monuments (RM), are protected under the National Monuments Acts and the Planning Acts. The qualities of archaeological and architectural interest are not mutually exclusive and certain structures can have both qualities and be protected by both sets of Acts.

Note:

In relation to a Protected Structure or proposed Protected Structure, the meaning of the term structure includes the interior of the structure, the land lying within the curtilage of the structure, any other structures lying within that curtilage and their interior, all fixtures and features which form part of the interior or exterior of that structure. The protection also extends to any features specified as being in the attendant grounds. Therefore, the entire site is a protected structure, including all existing buildings on site including their exteriors, interiors, fixtures and fittings. The protection also extends to the lands of the site and as such come under the provisions of the Planning and Development Act 2000 and any amendments to the Act.
