

Edited Register

Section 4 and other provisions of the Electoral \(Amendment\) Act, 2001 require the compilation of both a full and an Edited Register. The Edited Register contains only the names of persons who have no objection to their details being used for purposes other than an electoral or other statutory purpose. Since 1st November 2004 it is an offence to use details on the full Register for anything other than an electoral or other statutory purpose.

If you do not wish your details to be included on the Edited Register you should tick the "opt-out" box when completing the application form for inclusion on the Register (Form RFA)

Of the 184,540 electors currently registered in South Dublin 20,228 are included on the Edited Register.
