Eco Week: Murmurations with Photographer James Crombie

Wednesday 26th March

6.30pm

AIB Press Photographer of the Year, James Crombie, discusses his new photo book on the murmurations of starlings at Lough Ennell.

An event that photography and nature lovers won't want to miss! James will showcase and discuss his new book, published by The Lilliput Press (Murmurations).

James began a four year journey, travelling to the lake shore for over 100 days per year. In his efforts to capture the formations of the magical birds, James managed to chart the stunning natural cycles of the lake and the surrounding countryside.
